Committed to Quality

- Research and taste testing ensure the highest quality food and beverage items
- Consulting chefs are brought in to develop international items
- Cholesterol-free canola oil is used
- Absolutely no MSG
- Hot foods constantly replenished on the buffet table for maximum freshness
- Mandarin kitchen partners meet each evening to exchange ideas for improvement and to reiterate local successes

Committed to the Community

- The Mandarin has donated $65,000 to Peel Memorial Hospital to date
- Service organizations and individuals who are active in their community are recognized by Mandarin through appreciation letters and/or free buffet meals
- Mandarin shows its support to many charitable organizations in the form of free buffet meals
- This family operation has grown and expanded since 1979, creating over 1,000 new jobs across Ontario.

Committed to You

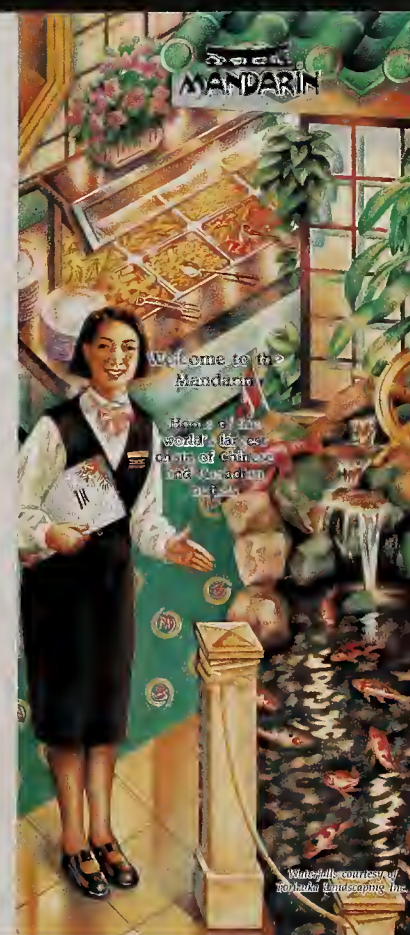

- Mandarin communicates with you through surveys, comment cards, the new Mandarin newsletter - so you feel like part of our family
- Hundreds of customers fill out comment cards each month; a written response is sent to all
- Take-out and delivery services are available. We are the first to offer this service for our Grade AAA Prime Rib dinner!

MANDARIN
YOU!

Hear the soothing trickle of the waterfall. See the Japanese Koi fish in the pond. Look at them closely, for good fortune. Submit to the irresistible aromas beckoning you from the buffet tables.

East meets West:

The Mandarin accommodates Canadian tastes, with a nod to more traditional Chinese.

The original decor was traditional Chinese (harsh red, black, and gold). More subtle pastel pinks and greens replaced this, to suit Canadian aesthetic tastes.

A traditional Chinese waterfall was created, emptying into a stone pond of Koi and goldfish, Chinese symbols of good luck and happiness.

The famous all-you-can-eat buffet tables feature an eclectic blend of Chinese and Canadian dishes.

FABULOUS FOOD

Some come for Mandarin service and hospitality. Others come for the decor. But everyone comes for the food. And there is lots of it.

Try our delectable appetizers, exotic soups, and up to 50 salad items.

Scrumptious Chow Mein and noodles, steaming rice, and Egg Foo Yong are a few of the traditional dishes we offer.

Feast on vegetarian delights, delicious spare rib varieties, plus all the beef and seafood you can eat – including New Brunswick Lobster when in season.

Plus, our buffet offers Canada's finest grade AAA Prime Rib every evening...at no extra charge!

The sizzling on-site grill provides you with mouth-watering, low-fat alternatives.

Piump, juicy chicken prepared so many ways: with almonds, broccoli, mushrooms, curry or pineapple; sweet and sour chicken balls, and lemon chicken.

"Pace" yourself to try at least a few of the many tantalizing desserts: tarts, nanaimo bars, almond cookies, a selection of fruits, jello, plus Mandarin's ever-popular ice-cream and toppings bar.

Toronto Star food critic Jim White says "The food is outstanding, the pleasure is as lengthy as menu, making O MEI a memorable spot for great Szechuan and Peking delights, with about 400 Chinese food restaurants in metro. It's nice to find a gem well worth a return visit."

We offer genuine Peking and Szechuan dishes and we present two champion chefs, one from Peking and other from Chungking.

Our Peking chef specializes in Mandarin food. His background is Mandarin cooking par excellence for seven centuries. Peking has carried over Chinese cooking tradition at its best, we offer our interpretation of Peking dishes, all fit for king and queen.

Let us have the pleasure of serving you right.

Peking Duck

It is one of the most sophisticated art of Chinese cooking, usually prepared to serve from five to eight people. The most prized part is the crisp skin which is served with this pancake, green on and Hainan Sausage. To achieve such crispness, air is pumped into the duck to stretch and loosen the skin, the boiling water is repeatedly poured over the bird, which is then carefully dried. The result is the crisp skin of the duck, which is served with the Hainan Sausage. Following this, the open duck meat is treated with vegetables and the remainder of the duck makes a wonderful soup the addition of Tonic Yolk cabbage.

2010 庚寅年

Lunar New Year Falls on: 2/14/2010

KUNG HEI FAT CHOY

(HAPPINESS AND PROSPERITY IN THE NEW YEAR)

Chinese New Year - otherwise known as Lunar New Year or Spring Festival – is the most important festival in the Chinese calendar. Celebrations begin on New Year's Eve to welcome the arrival of the New Year starting February, 2010. However preparations for the Festival usually begin a month ahead of time.

It is a time of renewal, sweeping out the old and bringing in the new. Houses are thoroughly cleaned and decorated with fruit-bearing kumquat trees and flowering peach branches. New clothes are bought. Everyone gets a new haircut. Outstanding debts are settled. Families visit temples to pay respect to their ancestors.

Traditionally, families dine together on Lunar New Year's eve. Each dish in this evening's sumptuous banquet symbolises wishes for the New Year. Chinese dumplings and eggs imply wealth, since they have the shape of ancient Chinese gold or silver ingots. Abalone represents abundance, oysters are good for business, mushrooms mean growing opportunity, chicken is the phoenix, fish means surplus and pork signals prosperity.

The whole family, including its youngest members, will stay up past midnight to welcome the New Year together. In some families, elders give children lai see, which is a red envelope containing money, on this night. In others, they wait until the morning.

Certain rules govern the giving of lai see. The elder gives to the younger, the married to the unmarried. A boss will often give lai see to all of his or her employees, regardless of age and marital status. It is considered discourteous to open the lai see in the giver's presence.

The seventh day is generally known as Yan Yat ("Everybody's Birthday"), giving Chinese people two birthdays each year. The weather is vital as it sets the tone for the year; a fine clear day with stars at night augurs an auspicious year.

The Yuen Siu or Lantern Festival falls on the 15th day of the first month of the New Year (February 28, 2010) and marks the end of New Year celebrations. This celebration of the first full moon of the year is again a time for family reunion, when the essential dish is a kind of dumpling made of sticky rice with sweet stuffing inside.

Yuen Siu is also known as Chinese Valentine's Day because it is traditionally a day on which young, unmarried women wear their finest clothes and venture out with chaperones to places where eligible young men gather.

The lunar calendar is represented by 12 animals. Each year is named after one animal. The 12 animals are: Rat, Ox, Tiger, Rabbit, Dragon, Snake, Horse, Sheep, Monkey, Rooster, Dog and Pig. A complete cycle takes 60 years when each of the animal signs is paired with the five main elements: Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal and Water.

The year 2010 is the Year of the Tiger.

To our Customers!

Dear Friends,

First, we would like to thank you for your support over the years, in making Young Lok, "The Place" for the best Chinese food in town. It has always been a tradition for Young Lok to accommodate the changing demands of our customers.

Cooking -

Throughout the years we have developed a style of cooking unique to the modern Chinese restaurant scene which requires no artificial flavour enhancer (Monosodium Glutamate, MSG), and little use of salt. We hope that you will find our food even more natural tasting, fresher and healthier.

Light Portion -

We have found that many small parties (less than four people) do not have the same advantage as the bigger parties to order a wide variety of dishes. So, for some of our more popular dishes, you can now order "light portion"! No substitution please!

Service -

We have implemented a more efficient ordering & distribution procedure, so that your food will come to your table faster & hotter, - fresh from the wok.

Take Out Service -

To cope with increasing take-out traffic we have permanently set up a take-out department at the Dim Sum Market, where you can order everything from delicious Dim Sum, Chinese snacks to your favourite Young Lok dishes.

The characters (榮樂) Young Lok, means pride and happiness and we at Young Lok are proud and happy to serve you the best Chinese food in town.

Enjoy!
